

90-Second Newbery Film Festival Minnesota Submissions

The second annual Minnesota screening of the 90-Second Newbery Film Festival, a video contest in which kid filmmakers create movies that tell the entire stories of Newbery-winning books in 90 seconds or less, was held Saturday, February 27, 2016 at Hennepin County Library – Minneapolis Central in Pohlad Hall.

Making a film offers students a uniquely creative and multi-faceted educational experience.

Kid filmmakers—often with the help of a teacher or parent—undertake all of the writing, storyboarding, prop creation, acting, producing, directing and editing the final film. Visit the 90-Second Newbery website to view other films created by kids around the world.
